

MY DEAR PILGRIMS:

This month, dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, we invite you to consecrate yourself to this Sacred Heart, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary! Two words come to mind – heartfelt and heartwarming and these are the words I would like you to ponder as you consider this consecration.

Both words for me speak of love, concern and compassion. These elements are not readily evident in our world today but each one of us as we travel through this world, making our journey to the Kingdom of Heaven we need to strive to bring these to each person we encounter.

So, we hear Jesus in Matthew 11:29, referring to Himself as being meek and humble of heart. Because of this, He invited those who find life burdensome to come to Him. He certainly had heartfelt compassion and in His Sacred Heart, all will find that warmth.

Mary on her part always heard the Word of God, whether it was spoken by an angel or by her own Son. Luke 2:19 tells us that hearing certain words, Mary pondered them in her heart. Because of this, her heartfelt compassion was evident at the wedding feast in Cana of Galilee when she recognized the fact that they had run out of wine. She knew that her Son could put things right. And that sentiment is still true today!

But do we really believe that? I hope we do. So as we consecrate ourselves to His Sacred Heart, we desire to consecrate the whole world. So let us use the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart and the Feast of the Immaculate Heart of Mary to make our consecration.

O Jesus, meek and humble of Heart, make my heart like unto Thine!

YOURS IN JESUS AND MARY,

R. Anthony Aarons
